

FROM THE MOUNTAINS & ELSEWHERE.

NEW YORKERS FLOCK TO THE CATSKILLS.

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 3.—Independence Day will be celebrated at many of the mountain towns, and hotel men expect to entertain very many guests, who will run up from New York and Brooklyn to-night to stay over the Fourth.

Miss Ella F. Hill, of New York, has come to the mountains for summer sketching, and will have a studio at Hunter. Her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Todd, is with her, and they are stopping at the Cole cottage.

The family of Dr. J. N. Butler, of New York, are established in the Raeder cottage at Cairo.

E. M. Brewster, of New York, will succeed M. G. Tyler, who died last week, as manager of the Tremper House, Phoenicia. The house will open Monday.

Joseph Burdell and family, of New York, arrived at their summer villa at Highmount Thursday.

The late arrivals at the Watson, Pine Hill, are Mr. and Mrs. William Deitering, children and nurse, Hoboken, N. J.; Miss E. Manton and Harry Grenber, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. H. Schmitt and family, of New York, have taken the Miller cottage at Pine Hill again this season. This is their third season at that resort.

Several cottages at Stamford have been rented within the last few days: J. J. Franks has taken the Moffatt cottage, S. and the Hancock cottage on Division street, and E. Carlsbeck, the New York banker, has a cottage on Stamford avenue.

The Fleischmann baseball club will be managed this year by Julius Fleischmann. The new athletic grounds are completed and will open next week, when the team will play several games with clubs from Hunter and Phoenicia.

Woodmere Heights, Catskill, has a number of prominent guests. Among the number are Professor E. A. Congdon, of Drexel Institute, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Gregg and Miss Mabel F. Telford, of Brooklyn; B. F. Nadel, Dr. Francis G. Deane, Rev. and Mrs. G. L. F. Mohr, Miss Fannie C. Russell, of New York.

Professor and Mrs. Alfred W. Finney, of New York, are at Woodbine cottage, Pine Hill, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Herrmann, the Misses Herrmann, of South River, N. J., are guests at the Watson, Pine Hill.

Charles Leibman and family, of New York, who have a beautiful summer home on the slope of the mountain overlooking Fleischmann's, took possession of their cottage this week.

The family of Professor A. Weisner, of New York, arrived at Pine Hill early in the week, and are occupying the Crosby stage on Bloch Creek.

The guests of the New Grand Hotel enjoyed the first full dress hop of the season to-night. Among the guests now there are Mr. and Mrs. B. J. O'Brien, Thomas J. Whelan, Miss Alice Whelan, George P. Barrington, Mrs. M. Greenwood, L. E. Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Volzing, Mr. and Mrs. D. Richter, the Misses Richter, Mrs. E. Lambert, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. John T. Greyson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E.

of California, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ward.

The beautiful cottage of Mrs. Meimke has been sold to Mr. Prindle, of New York, who, with his family, are now occupying it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kessler and family, of New York, have moved into the Caldwell homestead.

Mrs. S. R. Holcombe, of Clover Hill, N. J., is the guest of Mrs. Germain Kerr.

Mr. Lyman has as guests for the summer season his two sisters, Miss Mary Lyman and Miss Daisy Sayre, of Crystal.

Wilson, Miss Janet Wilson, of Brooklyn.

The family of C. C. Sloan, New York, arrived at their country house, Grovesmont, on the slope of Belle Ayer Mountain, Monday.

The Winnieok Club, which owns a large tract of land on Slide Mountain, is making many improvements to the club house. A number of prominent New Yorkers are members of this club, and will spend part of the season there.

Among the Brooklynites who will pass summer at Churchill Hall, Stamford, are Mrs. K. S. Houghton, Miss E. F. Hill, Captain and Mrs. Haxton, U. S. F.

CROWDS JOURNEY TO LAKE GEORGE.

Lake George, July 3.—The season has opened with a rush, and every train to the head of the lake empties its crowd of summer pleasure seekers on the pier. Here they scatter, some taking the boats for points down the lake and others content to dwell among the pines and maples, in the hotels, located on hard fought fields of revolutionary days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clatworthy, society people, of Troy, are here in Oaklock cottage, north of the Lake House.

Captain J. J. Phelps and Mrs. Phelps, of Engelwood, N. J., have opened their charming place on the east shore, which they have named Overlook.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Simpson and family, coachmen, horses and servants, arrived at the Sagamore this week. Major R. L. Banks, of Albany, and a cottage at the Sagamore, met the party at the head of Lake George, and carried them to the hotel on board The Clacket.

The trial trip of the Fanita came off this week. The steamer made a remarkable showing and increase in speed over that shown last season.

The family of Rev. George D. Hulst, of Brooklyn, are here for the summer in their pretty home, The Dovecote, located on the grounds of the Lake George Assembly.

Mr. Hulst is pastor of the Reformed Church, of Bushwick Avenue Church, as it is called in Brooklyn.

Among the new steam yachts on the lake this summer is that built by Bates Brothers of Caldwell, for George A. Knapp, of Chicago, who spends his summers at the Hundred Island House, in the Narrows.

Mr. Knapp has named the craft The Vanda, meaning in Norwegian "The Water Sprite." The launch is a very handsome craft, is completely equipped and furnished with the best of modern machinery.

Robert C. Alexander, of New York, is spending a few days at Buena Vista cottage, on Concordia Bay. The cottage is owned by Mr. Alexander. He is here with his wife, and they are entertaining friends as usual.

The new departure of the Lake George Steamboat Company in putting the steamer Mohican in service to run down the lake as far as Pearl Point, on the arrival of the evening train from New York City, will be regarded as a blessing by New Yorkers desirous of leaving New York City in the morning and reaching their destination here before night.

Prospect Mountain and the Otis inclined cable railroad opened this week, and the cars are running every half hour to the summit, 2,000 feet above the level. Allan Banks, of the Otis Company, is the local manager of the hotel on top of the mountain and the cable road this summer.

Cottagers on Lake George need fear no danger from starvation, as there are over a dozen men engaged in the occupation of supplying their wants this year. Peripatetic vegetable vendors, grocers and market men have established routes covering the lake shore, calling at all the cottages and hotels three times each week.

Harry B. Moore, of the New York Yacht Club, and the owner of a summer home on the shores of Heart Bay, near the foot of the lake is here with his family. Millard F. Smith, of New York and Brooklyn, and a neighbor of Mr. Moore, has also arrived with his family for the summer.

At Richfield Springs.

Summer Visitors Will Take Part in the Ceremony of Unveiling the Soldiers' Monument.

Richfield Springs, N. Y., July 3.—The dedicatory exercises and the ceremony incidental to the presentation of the Soldiers' Monument take place Monday.

The monument is the gift of Thomas Redfield Proctor to the village of Richfield Springs. The monument stands in a pretty park triangular in shape. The unveiling ceremony will take place at 2 o'clock, the line of march being formed in front of the Hotel Earlinton, and thence to the park, where the Proctor gift stands.

Mayor Strong, of New York, has consented to preside at the unveiling and the orator of the day will be James H. O'Brien, the Charity Commissioner of New York. An address will be made by General Daniel Butterfield, while Mr. Proctor, of the Spring House, will formally present the monument to the village fathers.

The Wisconsin Golf Club witnessed its opening today, and the summer throng were not tardy to wend their way to the clubhouse and enjoy the festivities. The grounds are in perfect shape, and experts pronounce the links the finest in the State. Lee Tallier has been chosen M. F. H. of the Hunt and announces the initial run of the grounds to take place early next week. Several riders of the Radnor Hunt, Philadelphia, are coming up after the Fourth, and the cross country riding will afford great events for the gentlemen of the Hunt.

Mayor Strong arrived in town to-day and comes to Richfield for a course of baths. The Mayor usually spends July here, accompanied by Mrs. Strong and their son, P. Bradlee Strong.

Colonel and Mrs. E. C. Anderson will give a "Fourth of July fete" at Maple Terrace to-morrow, which will be the scene of many social functions this season. The Andersons occupy their pretty house each year.

Rev. John M. Kieley, of the Church of the Transfiguration, Brooklyn, is a guest at the Hotel Earlinton.

Palmer cottage was opened for the season Thursday, Mrs. L. V. Gasquet and family, of New Orleans, having leased the house for the summer. The Gasquets came up early in June and spent the month at the Spring House.

Judge Henry L. Clinton and family, of New York, who have not missed a summer at the Spring House in a score of years, are again at Richfield.

Colonel Laurence Kip, president of the Suburban Riding and Driving Club, is a guest at the Spring House.

Recent arrivals are: Hotel Earlinton—E. M. Walters, Anna W. O'Mara, New York; Rev. John M. Kieley, Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitney, New York; F. J. Roe, Buffalo. Spring House—A. A. Sack, Mr. and Mrs. Bainbridge Clark, New York; P. S. Jackson and family, Newark, N. J.; Fuller House—E. L. Blackwood, Mrs. Blackwood, Mrs. George H. Taylor, Mrs. L. Lyman, Miss K. A. Conklin, Mrs. Payne, Miss Payne, New York; Mr. and Mrs. James Mickie, Philadelphia; Fred Grant Young, Groveland, Mass. Tunnel-cliff Cottage—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Chittenden, Mr. C. D. Ingersoll, Miss Coghill, New York; Miss E. K. Hale, Burlington, N. J.; Mrs. William Rucher, William J. Rucher, St. Louis, Mo.

NEWS FROM THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Jackson, N. H., July 3.—Jackson has awakened from its winter lethargy of ice and snow. General Wentworth never looked healthier than he does this summer. Dr. Prime, the famous fisherman, and Annie Trumbull Slosson, author of "Flashin' Jimmy," have arrived at their Gale River cottage for the summer. The deserted village of Gale is now only a recollection, having been swept away this spring by floods. Outdoor theatricals will probably be held here in August.

Arrivals at Wentworth Hall include Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Greger, of Marblehead, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Colby, of Stamford, P. C.; Miss M. E. Robert and Miss M. H. Crooke, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Coburn, of Boston; Mrs. John W. James, Miss M. E. Danell, of Boston; Judge and Mrs. L. D. B. Colt, Le Baron C. Colt, Miss M. L. Colt, of Providence; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bush, West Newton, Mass.

Intervale, N. H., July 3.—Arrivals at the Intervale House are quite numerous and include the undermentioned:

C. B. Davenport, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Mary A. Smith, New York; Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin, child and nurse, New York; Mr. J. Koopman, Boston, Mass.; Miss Rena Koopman, Boston; Sherman F. Denton, Wellesley, Mass.; E. Hodgdon, South Berwick, Me.; Dr. John Bryant, Boston, Mass.; A. D. Brundage, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Stredwick, Jr.; Miss Stredwick, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. H. Munnyholsen, Miss Letta Munnyholsen, Miss Bessie Munnyholsen and maid, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Simonds, Salem, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. White, Red Bank, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Houghton, Boston, Mass.; Mr. E. R. Tyler and valet; Mrs. John Tyler, Miss Edith M. Tyler and maid; Mrs. N. W. Lafayette, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Frazier and daughter, Boston, Mass.; George B. Lauder, Concord, N. H.; George McCarthy, James Smith, Boston, Mass., and Thomas N. Chase, Atlanta, Ga.

Kennebunkport, Me., July 3.—F. W. Moss, of Brooklyn, has built the largest cottage, with perhaps a single exception, on the Maine coast. It is located directly opposite the famous Blowing Cave, at Kennebunkport, and commands a most charming view.

A. Walker Otis, of New York, is expected with his family and a party of friends at the Parker House, Kennebunkport, soon.

Walter Coleman, of Brooklyn, will summer at Kennebunk Beach.

C. E. Quigley, of New York, is a recent arrival at Kennebunkport.

Charles Parsons, of New York, has a large crew of landscape gardeners at work on his beautiful grounds at Crescent Surf.

The camp meeting season at Old Orchard is to be much longer than usual this year, while the racing season on the kite track is to be shorter than ever.

NEWS FROM THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Jackson, N. H., July 3.—Jackson has awakened from its winter lethargy of ice and snow. General Wentworth never looked healthier than he does this summer. Dr. Prime, the famous fisherman, and Annie Trumbull Slosson, author of "Flashin' Jimmy," have arrived at their Gale River cottage for the summer. The deserted village of Gale is now only a recollection, having been swept away this spring by floods. Outdoor theatricals will probably be held here in August.

Arrivals at Wentworth Hall include Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Greger, of Marblehead, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Colby, of Stamford, P. C.; Miss M. E. Robert and Miss M. H. Crooke, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Coburn, of Boston; Mrs. John W. James, Miss M. E. Danell, of Boston; Judge and Mrs. L. D. B. Colt, Le Baron C. Colt, Miss M. L. Colt, of Providence; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bush, West Newton, Mass.

Intervale, N. H., July 3.—Arrivals at the Intervale House are quite numerous and include the undermentioned:

C. B. Davenport, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Mary A. Smith, New York; Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin, child and nurse, New York; Mr. J. Koopman, Boston, Mass.; Miss Rena Koopman, Boston; Sherman F. Denton, Wellesley, Mass.; E. Hodgdon, South Berwick, Me.; Dr. John Bryant, Boston, Mass.; A. D. Brundage, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Stredwick, Jr.; Miss Stredwick, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. H. Munnyholsen, Miss Letta Munnyholsen, Miss Bessie Munnyholsen and maid, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Simonds, Salem, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. White, Red Bank, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Houghton, Boston, Mass.; Mr. E. R. Tyler and valet; Mrs. John Tyler, Miss Edith M. Tyler and maid; Mrs. N. W. Lafayette, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Frazier and daughter, Boston, Mass.; George B. Lauder, Concord, N. H.; George McCarthy, James Smith, Boston, Mass., and Thomas N. Chase, Atlanta, Ga.

Kennebunkport, Me., July 3.—F. W. Moss, of Brooklyn, has built the largest cottage, with perhaps a single exception, on the Maine coast. It is located directly opposite the famous Blowing Cave, at Kennebunkport, and commands a most charming view.

A. Walker Otis, of New York, is expected with his family and a party of friends at the Parker House, Kennebunkport, soon.

Walter Coleman, of Brooklyn, will summer at Kennebunk Beach.

C. E. Quigley, of New York, is a recent arrival at Kennebunkport.

Charles Parsons, of New York, has a large crew of landscape gardeners at work on his beautiful grounds at Crescent Surf.

The camp meeting season at Old Orchard is to be much longer than usual this year, while the racing season on the kite track is to be shorter than ever.

George Parsons, of New York, and family, have arrived at their Kennebunk home for the summer.

Kennebunkport and York will each give a coaching parade this season.

NEW LONDON RELIEVED.

Warm Weather Brings a Host of Hotel Guests and Plenty of Cottagers.

New London, Conn., July 3.—The lively gait of the mercury has brought the cottager and the hotel guest to where it was feared they never would arrive. At the Pequot colony and Eastern Point the story is the same.

Among the guests at the Fort Griswold are Mrs. R. Van Zant Lane, Mrs. G. H. Sayle and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Lewis, Mrs. H. H. Griffin, Mrs. Leed, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Patern, Mrs. B. Postley and family, all of New York.

Among the cottagers comfortably settled in their cozy residences are Mrs. Harry, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Butler and family, Orange, N. J.; Drs. Henry and J. T. Conkling, Brooklyn; Mrs. Sarah P. Sant.

Northfield, Mass., July 3.—Although the conference which is now being held at Northfield is for college young men, the town is rapidly filling with visitors and the summer girl forms no small part of their number.

Miss E. Van Rensselaer, daughter of Colonel Killian Van Rensselaer, of New York, is at the Northfield for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schell, of New York, are at the Northfield.

Mrs. R. S. MacArthur, of New York, wife of the well-known clergyman of that city, is visiting here with her daughter, Miss MacArthur, at the Northfield.

Mrs. D. C. Blair, daughter-in-law of the millionaire Blair, of Blairtown, is summering in Northfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McAlpin, of New York, are here for a short vacation.

Mrs. Robert Stewart, of New York, is stopping at the Nina.

Mrs. J. T. Pyle, of New York City, is at the Northfield.

Mrs. William Callender, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. Cyrus Holton.

Among the New Yorkers registered at the hotels this week are:

Northfield—Mrs. F. A. Slade, Miss M. Slade, William Strong, Mrs. T. B. Melgs, Walter Melgs, Mrs. J. T. Pyle, Miss Elizabeth N. Cone, R. Montgomery Schell, Mrs. Eugene Crampford, Mrs. Foster Crampford, J. B. Murray, Clarence P. Dodge, Mrs. D. C. Blair, Mrs. H. M. Bruen, Stephen Barker, A. A. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schell, Miss Hamilton, Mrs. Stiles, Miss Rose B. Lobenstein, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Isaach, Mrs. L. H. Lestive, Mrs. John Gray Foster, Mrs. Fred Goodhue Chead, Laurence Myers Chead, Miss A. M. Davidson, M. B. Walsh, Miss E. Van Rensselaer, Rev. Henry Van Dyke, New York City; Mrs. J. E. Hill, Miss Margaret Cotter, Mrs. Foster Pratt, Miss Anna G. Crittenden, Miss Mary M. Howard, Miss Ruth W. Howard, Brooklyn; Miss Annie M. Irwin and Miss Alice Irwin, Albany.

Two famous Newport summer homes.

Both, it is said, will be the scenes of notable social events this season.

Wilson, Miss Janet Wilson, of Brooklyn.

The family of C. C. Sloan, New York, arrived at their country house, Grovesmont, on the slope of Belle Ayer Mountain, Monday.

The Winnieok Club, which owns a large tract of land on Slide Mountain, is making many improvements to the club house. A number of prominent New Yorkers are members of this club, and will spend part of the season there.

Among the Brooklynites who will pass summer at Churchill Hall, Stamford, are Mrs. K. S. Houghton, Miss E. F. Hill, Captain and Mrs. Haxton, U. S. F.

of California, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ward.

The beautiful cottage of Mrs. Meimke has been sold to Mr. Prindle, of New York, who, with his family, are now occupying it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kessler and family, of New York, have moved into the Caldwell homestead.

Mrs. S. R. Holcombe, of Clover Hill, N. J., is the guest of Mrs. Germain Kerr.

Mr. Lyman has as guests for the summer season his two sisters, Miss Mary Lyman and Miss Daisy Sayre, of Crystal.

Wilson, Miss Janet Wilson, of Brooklyn.

The family of C. C. Sloan, New York, arrived at their country house, Grovesmont, on the slope of Belle Ayer Mountain, Monday.

NEWS FROM THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Jackson, N. H., July 3.—Jackson has awakened from its winter lethargy of ice and snow. General Wentworth never looked healthier than he does this summer. Dr. Prime, the famous fisherman, and Annie Trumbull Slosson, author of "Flashin' Jimmy," have arrived at their Gale River cottage for the summer. The deserted village of Gale is now only a recollection, having been swept away this spring by floods. Outdoor theatricals will probably be held here in August.

Arrivals at Wentworth Hall include Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Greger, of Marblehead, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Colby, of Stamford, P. C.; Miss M. E. Robert and Miss M. H. Crooke, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Coburn, of Boston; Mrs. John W. James, Miss M. E. Danell, of Boston; Judge and Mrs. L. D. B. Colt, Le Baron C. Colt, Miss M. L. Colt, of Providence; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bush, West Newton, Mass.

Intervale, N. H., July 3.—Arrivals at the Intervale House are quite numerous and include the undermentioned:

C. B. Davenport, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Mary A. Smith, New York; Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin, child and nurse, New York; Mr. J. Koopman, Boston, Mass.; Miss Rena Koopman, Boston; Sherman F. Denton, Wellesley, Mass.; E. Hodgdon, South Berwick, Me.; Dr. John Bryant, Boston, Mass.; A. D. Brundage, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Stredwick, Jr.; Miss Stredwick, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. H. Munnyholsen, Miss Letta Munnyholsen, Miss Bessie Munnyholsen and maid, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Simonds, Salem, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. White, Red Bank, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Houghton, Boston, Mass.; Mr. E. R. Tyler and valet; Mrs. John Tyler, Miss Edith M. Tyler and maid; Mrs. N. W. Lafayette, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Frazier and daughter, Boston, Mass.; George B. Lauder, Concord, N. H.; George McCarthy, James Smith, Boston, Mass., and Thomas N. Chase, Atlanta, Ga.

Kennebunkport, Me., July 3.—F. W. Moss, of Brooklyn, has built the largest cottage, with perhaps a single exception, on the Maine coast. It is located directly opposite the famous Blowing Cave, at Kennebunkport, and commands a most charming view.

A. Walker Otis, of New York, is expected with his family and a party of friends at the Parker House, Kennebunkport, soon.

Walter Coleman, of Brooklyn, will summer at Kennebunk Beach.

C. E. Quigley, of New York, is a recent arrival at Kennebunkport.

Charles Parsons, of New York, has a large crew of landscape gardeners at work on his beautiful grounds at Crescent Surf.

The camp meeting season at Old Orchard is to be much longer than usual this year, while the racing season on the kite track is to be shorter than ever.

George Parsons, of New York, and family, have arrived at their Kennebunk home for the summer.

Kennebunkport and York will each give a coaching parade this season.

NEW LONDON RELIEVED.

Warm Weather Brings a Host of Hotel Guests and Plenty of Cottagers.

New London, Conn., July 3.—The lively gait of the mercury has brought the cottager and the hotel guest to where it was feared they never would arrive. At the Pequot colony and Eastern Point the story is the same.

Among the guests at the Fort Griswold are Mrs. R. Van Zant Lane, Mrs. G. H. Sayle and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Lewis, Mrs. H. H. Griffin, Mrs. Leed, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Patern, Mrs. B. Postley and family, all of New York.

Among the cottagers comfortably settled in their cozy residences are Mrs. Harry, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Butler and family, Orange, N. J.; Drs. Henry and J. T. Conkling, Brooklyn; Mrs. Sarah P. Sant.

Northfield, Mass., July 3.—Although the conference which is now being held at Northfield is for college young men, the town is rapidly filling with visitors and the summer girl forms no small part of their number.

Miss E. Van Rensselaer, daughter of Colonel Killian Van Rensselaer, of New York, is at the Northfield for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schell, of New York, are at the Northfield.

Mrs. R. S. MacArthur, of New York, wife of the well-known clergyman of that city, is visiting here with her daughter, Miss MacArthur, at the Northfield.

Mrs. D. C. Blair, daughter-in-law of the millionaire Blair, of Blairtown, is summering in Northfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McAlpin, of New York, are here for a short vacation.

Mrs. Robert Stewart, of New York, is stopping at the Nina.

Mrs. J. T. Pyle, of New York City, is at the Northfield.

Mrs. William Callender, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. Cyrus Holton.

Among the New Yorkers registered at the hotels this week are:

Northfield—Mrs. F. A. Slade, Miss M. Slade, William Strong, Mrs. T. B. Melgs, Walter Melgs, Mrs. J. T. Pyle, Miss Elizabeth N. Cone, R. Montgomery Schell, Mrs. Eugene Crampford, Mrs. Foster Crampford, J. B. Murray, Clarence P. Dodge, Mrs. D. C. Blair, Mrs. H. M. Bruen, Stephen Barker, A. A. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schell, Miss Hamilton, Mrs. Stiles, Miss Rose B. Lobenstein, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Isaach, Mrs. L. H. Lestive, Mrs. John Gray Foster, Mrs. Fred Goodhue Chead, Laurence Myers Chead, Miss A. M. Davidson, M. B. Walsh, Miss E. Van Rensselaer, Rev. Henry Van Dyke, New York City; Mrs. J. E. Hill, Miss Margaret Cotter, Mrs. Foster Pratt, Miss Anna G. Crittenden, Miss Mary M. Howard, Miss Ruth W. Howard, Brooklyn; Miss Annie M. Irwin and Miss Alice Irwin, Albany.

Two famous Newport summer homes.

Both, it is said, will be the scenes of notable social events this season.

Wilson, Miss Janet Wilson, of Brooklyn.

The family of C. C. Sloan, New York, arrived at their country house, Grovesmont, on the slope of Belle Ayer Mountain, Monday.

The Winnieok Club, which owns a large tract of land on Slide Mountain, is making many improvements to the club house. A number of prominent New Yorkers are members of this club, and will spend part of the season there.

Among the Brooklynites who will pass summer at Churchill Hall, Stamford, are Mrs. K. S. Houghton, Miss E. F. Hill, Captain and Mrs. Haxton, U. S. F.

of California, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ward.

The beautiful cottage of Mrs. Meimke has been sold to Mr. Prindle, of New York, who, with his family, are now occupying it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kessler and family, of New York, have moved into the Caldwell homestead.

Mrs. S. R. Holcombe, of Clover Hill, N. J., is the guest of Mrs. Germain Kerr.

Mr. Lyman has as guests for the summer season his two sisters, Miss Mary Lyman and Miss Daisy Sayre, of Crystal.

Wilson, Miss Janet Wilson, of Brooklyn.

The family of C. C. Sloan, New York, arrived at their country house, Grovesmont, on the slope of Belle Ayer Mountain, Monday.

